

RECYCLED ART EXHIBITION 2014

Entries are now open for the 2014 Southern Gippsland Sustainability Festival Art Exhibition. Applications are sought for art works made from at least 50% recycled materials and embody the theme:

~ Tread Lightly, Use Wisely ~

Artists are invited through their artwork to comment on how we can choose to live in lighter, wiser ways. Ways, in which we can soften our impact on the natural environment, use the earth's resources more wisely, conserving them for future generations.

Artworks will be exhibited for the month of April in the Auditorium @ Coal Creek Heritage Park & Museum, Korumburra. Entries will be judged on set criteria and prizes awarded to entries under the following three categories.

Categories

Primary (13 yrs & under)

Secondary (14 - 18 yrs)

Open (18+ yrs)

A People's Choice Award will also be awarded on the basis on the most votes received.

Judging Criteria

1. Creativity and originality.
2. Design and the use of multiple elements and techniques.
3. Quality of workmanship and construction.
4. Overall presentation.
5. Conceptual meaning and impact.

NOTE: All wearable art entries must be wearable, and able to withstand being put on and off models.

Application

Entries must include:

- Contact information
- Information stating the artists name, artwork's title, materials / media used, garment size (if applicable), and a 100 word statement on how it embodies the Exhibition Theme.
- Three photos of each artwork (front, back, and a "bonus" photo of the artist's choosing) in electronic format. Please save in JPEG format and include your last name in label.
